

A Friendship That Lasted

| #  |  |  |  | EXAMPLE                                                  |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  | live verb                                                           | yashagan                                                                          | жили                                                                              | My grandparents lived in Fergana all their lives. |
| 2  | next to preposition                                                 | yonida                                                                            | рядом с                                                                           | The bank is next to the post office.              |
| 3  | over preposition                                                    | ortiq                                                                             | более                                                                             | Over a hundred people came to the concert.        |
| 4  | forty number                                                        | qirq                                                                              | сорок                                                                             | My father is forty years old.                     |
| 5  | neighbour noun                                                      | qo'shnilar                                                                        | соседи                                                                            | Our neighbours have a beautiful garden.           |
| 6  | granddaughter noun                                                  | nabira (qiz)                                                                      | внучка                                                                            | She bought a doll for her granddaughter .         |
| 7  | get along phrasal verb                                              | til topishmoq                                                                     | ладить                                                                            | My brother and I got along well as children.      |
| 8  | stay verb                                                           | qolgan                                                                            | оставались                                                                        | We stayed at a small hotel in Bukhara.            |
| 9  | close adjective                                                     | yaqin                                                                             | близкий                                                                           | I'm very close to my cousin.                      |
| 10 | matter verb                                                         | muhim                                                                             | важно                                                                             | Your health is what matters most.                 |
| 11 | keep verb                                                           | saqlab qolgan                                                                     | сохраняло                                                                         | She kept all her old school books.                |
| 12 | friendship noun                                                     | do'stlik                                                                          | дружба                                                                            | Their friendship started at school.               |
| 13 | strong adjective                                                    | mustahkam                                                                         | крепкий                                                                           | You need strong arms to carry this.               |
| 14 | support verb                                                        | qo'llab-quvvatlagan                                                               | поддерживали                                                                      | My family supported me when I was ill.            |
| 15 | beginning noun                                                      | boshlanish                                                                        | начало                                                                            | I didn't like the book at the beginning .         |
| 16 | husband noun                                                        | er                                                                                | муж                                                                               | Her husband is a pilot.                           |
| 17 | pass away phrasal verb                                              | vafot etgan                                                                       | скончался                                                                         | My grandfather passed away last year.             |
| 18 | quietly adverb                                                      | sokin                                                                             | тихо                                                                              | The students worked quietly .                     |
| 19 | bring verb                                                          | olib kelgan                                                                       | приносила                                                                         | Our guests brought flowers and sweets.            |
| 20 | miss verb                                                           | o'tkazib yuborish                                                                 | пропуская                                                                         | She hasn't been missing any lessons.              |
| 21 | single adjective                                                    | yagona                                                                            | единственный                                                                      | I didn't hear a single word.                      |
| 22 | far adverb                                                          | uzoq                                                                              | далеко                                                                            | My school isn't far from my house.                |
| 23 | once adverb                                                         | bir marta                                                                         | однажды                                                                           | I've been to Moscow only once .                   |
| 24 | write verb                                                          | yozgan                                                                            | писали                                                                            | Have you written your essay yet?                  |
| 25 | letter noun                                                         | xatlar                                                                            | письма                                                                            | We used to write letters to each other.           |
| 26 | warmly adverb                                                       | iliqlik bilan                                                                     | тепло                                                                             | He shook my hand warmly .                         |
| 27 | close adjective                                                     | eng yaqin                                                                         | самый близкий                                                                     | The closest shop is five minutes away.            |
| 28 | visit verb                                                          | tashrif buyuradi                                                                  | приходит                                                                          | My uncle visits us every summer.                  |
| 29 | exactly adverb                                                      | aynan                                                                             | точно                                                                             | She arrived at exactly nine o'clock.              |
| 30 | change verb                                                         | o'zgarmaq                                                                         | меняться                                                                          | Some things never change .                        |