

The Mystery of the Northern Lights

| #  |  |  |  | EXAMPLE                                                           |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  | magical adjective                                                   | sehrli                                                                            | волшебный                                                                         | Samarkand looks magical at night.                          |
| 2  | aurora borealis noun                                                | shimoliy qutb yog'dusi                                                            | северное сияние                                                                   | Seeing the aurora borealis is on my bucket list.           |
| 3  | colourful adjective                                                 | rang-barang                                                                       | красочный                                                                         | The bazaar is full of colourful fabrics.                   |
| 4  | appear verb                                                         | paydo bo'lmoq                                                                     | появляться                                                                        | Stars appear in the sky after sunset.                      |
| 5  | fireworks noun                                                      | mushakbozlik, salyut                                                              | фейерверк                                                                         | We watched the fireworks on Independence Day.              |
| 6  | dance verb                                                          | raqsga tushmoq; o'ynab turmoq (yorug'lik)                                         | танцевать; играть (о свете)                                                       | Sunlight danced on the surface of the water.               |
| 7  | cause verb                                                          | sabab bo'lmoq                                                                     | вызывать                                                                          | Too much stress can cause headaches.                       |
| 8  | make up phrasal verb                                                | to'qib chiqarmoq                                                                  | выдумывать                                                                        | She made up an excuse for being late.                      |
| 9  | explain verb                                                        | tushuntirmoq                                                                      | объяснить                                                                         | Can you explain this rule again, please?                   |
| 10 | believe verb                                                        | ishonmoq                                                                          | верить, считать                                                                   | People once believed the Earth was flat.                   |
| 11 | reflection noun                                                     | aks                                                                               | отражение                                                                         | I saw my reflection in the shop window.                    |
| 12 | armour noun                                                         | sovut, zirh                                                                       | доспехи, броня                                                                    | The museum has the armour of a medieval knight.            |
| 13 | creature noun                                                       | jonzot, mavjudot                                                                  | существо                                                                          | Dragons are imaginary creatures .                          |
| 14 | indigenous adjective                                                | tub, mahalliy (xalq)                                                              | коренной                                                                          | The Maori are the indigenous people of New Zealand.        |
| 15 | spirit noun                                                         | ruh                                                                               | дух                                                                               | Some people believe spirits live in old houses.            |
| 16 | ancestor noun                                                       | ajdod                                                                             | предок                                                                            | My ancestors came from Khorezm.                            |
| 17 | inspire verb                                                        | ilhomlantirmoq                                                                    | вдохновлять                                                                       | Her story will inspire many young women.                   |
| 18 | myth noun                                                           | afsona, mif                                                                       | миф                                                                               | Ancient Greek myths are full of gods and heroes.           |
| 19 | legend noun                                                         | rivoyat, afsona                                                                   | легенда                                                                           | According to legend , the city was built in one night.     |
| 20 | solve verb                                                          | hal qilmoq                                                                        | решать                                                                            | The police finally solved the crime.                       |
| 21 | tiny adjective                                                      | juda kichik, mitti                                                                | крошечный                                                                         | She lives in a tiny flat in the city centre.               |
| 22 | particle noun                                                       | zarra                                                                             | частица                                                                           | Tiny particles of dust were floating in the air.           |
| 23 | solar wind noun                                                     | quyosh shamoli                                                                    | солнечный ветер                                                                   | The solar wind travels at about 400 kilometres per second. |
| 24 | gas noun                                                            | gaz                                                                               | газ                                                                               | Cars produce harmful gases .                               |
| 25 | atmosphere noun                                                     | atmosfera                                                                         | атмосфера                                                                         | The Earth's atmosphere protects us from the sun.           |
| 26 | oxygen noun                                                         | kislorod                                                                          | кислород                                                                          | Plants produce oxygen .                                    |
| 27 | nitrogen noun                                                       | azot                                                                              | азот                                                                              | Air is mostly nitrogen .                                   |
| 28 | depend on phrasal verb                                              | ...ga bog'liq bo'lmoq                                                             | зависеть от                                                                       | The price depends on the size.                             |

|    |                                     |                                      |                           |                                                                  |
|----|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 29 | produce verb          | hosil qilmoq,ishlabchiqarmoq | производить,создавать | Bees produce honey.                                       |
| 30 | Arctic Circle noun    | Shimoliy qutbdoirasi             | Северныйполярный круг | In summer, the sun never sets inside the Arctic Circle .  |
| 31 | in the hope of phrase | ...umidida                           | в надежде на              | He moved to Tashkent in the hope of finding a better job. |
| 32 | scientist noun        | olim                                 | учёный                    | Scientists are worried about rising sea levels.           |
| 33 | solar storm noun      | quyosh bo'roni                       | солнечная буря            | A strong solar storm can stop GPS from working.           |
| 34 | satellite noun        | sun'iy yo'ldosh                      | спутник                   | We get TV channels from a satellite .                     |
| 35 | power line noun       | elektr uzatishtarmog'i           | линияэлектропередачи  | The storm brought down several power lines .              |
| 36 | expert noun           | mutaxassis,ekspert               | эксперт                   | Experts say the economy will grow next year.              |
| 37 | space weather noun    | kosmik ob-havo                       | космическаяпогода     | Space weather can affect mobile phone signals.            |
| 38 | protect verb          | himoya qilmoq                        | защищать                  | Wear a hat to protect yourself from the sun.              |
| 39 | wonder noun           | hayrat; mo'jiza                      | удивление; чудо           | The children looked at the snow in wonder .               |
| 40 | imagination noun      | tasavvur                             | воображение               | Use your imagination to write the story.                  |

millatedu.uz · Read the story again and try to use each word in your own sentence.