

The Life and Work of Nelson Mandela

| #  |  |  |  | EXAMPLE                                                                 |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  | remember verb                                                       | eslanadi, xotirlanadi                                                             | помнят, вспоминают                                                                | He is remembered as a kind and honest teacher.                   |
| 2  | leader                                                                     | yetakchilar                                                                       | лидеры                                                                            | A good leader listens to the people around them.                 |
| 3  | freedom noun                                                        | erkinlik                                                                          | свобода                                                                           | Teenagers often want more freedom from their parents.            |
| 4  | equality noun                                                       | tenglik                                                                           | равенство                                                                         | The new law supports equality between men and women.             |
| 5  | race noun                                                           | irq                                                                               | раса                                                                              | People of every race live in this city.                          |
| 6  | treat verb                                                          | munosabatda bo'lmoq                                                               | обращаться (с кем-то)                                                             | Our teacher treats all students the same.                        |
| 7  | unequal adverb                                                      | notekis, adolatsiz tarzda                                                         | неравно, несправедливо                                                            | In the past, girls were treated unequally at school.             |
| 8  | government noun                                                     | hukumat                                                                           | правительство                                                                     | The government is building new schools.                          |
| 9  | law noun                                                            | qonun                                                                             | закон                                                                             | In many countries, there is a law against smoking in cafés.      |
| 10 | apartheid noun                                                      | aparteid                                                                          | апартеид                                                                          | Apartheid ended in South Africa in the early 1990s.              |
| 11 | apart adverb                                                        | alohida, bir-biridan ajratib                                                      | отдельно, порознь                                                                 | The twins hate being apart .                                     |
| 12 | vote verb                                                           | ovoz bermoq                                                                       | голосовать                                                                        | You can vote in elections when you are eighteen.                 |
| 13 | certain area                                                               | ma'lum hududlar                                                                   | определённые районы                                                               | Smoking is only allowed in certain areas of the airport.         |
| 14 | education noun                                                      | ta'lim                                                                            | образование                                                                       | Every child has the right to a good education .                  |
| 15 | unfair adjective                                                    | adolatsiz                                                                         | несправедливый                                                                    | It's unfair to punish the whole class for one student's mistake. |
| 16 | lawyer noun                                                         | advokat                                                                           | адвокат, юрист                                                                    | She hired a lawyer to help with the court case.                  |
| 17 | defend verb                                                         | himoya qilmoq                                                                     | защищать                                                                          | The goalkeeper defended the goal brilliantly.                    |
| 18 | right noun                                                          | huquqlar                                                                          | права                                                                             | Everyone has the right to clean water.                           |
| 19 | join verb                                                           | qo'shildi                                                                         | присоединился                                                                     | I joined the school chess club last year.                        |
| 20 | peaceful protest                                                           | tinch namoyishlar                                                                 | мирные протесты                                                                   | Thousands of students took part in a peaceful protest .          |
| 21 | listen verb                                                         | eshitmoq, quloq solmoq                                                            | слушать, прислушиваться                                                           | My parents always listen to my opinion.                          |
| 22 | decide verb                                                         | qaror qildi                                                                       | решили                                                                            | We decided to take the train instead of the bus.                 |
| 23 | stronger action                                                            | kuchliroq harakat                                                                 | более решительные действия                                                        | Many people want stronger action against pollution.              |
| 24 | against preposition                                                 | ...ga qarshi                                                                      | против                                                                            | Most people voted against the new plan.                          |

|    |                                          |                             |                          |                                                                  |
|----|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 25 | send to prison verb        | qamoqqa yuborildi           | отправлен в тюрьму       | The thief was sent to prison for three years.             |
| 26 | behind bars                       | qamoqda, panjara ortida     | за решёткой              | The criminal will spend the next ten years behind bars .  |
| 27 | even though conjunction    | ...ga qaramay               | хотя, несмотря на то что | Even though it was raining, we went for a walk.           |
| 28 | continue to inspire verb   | ilhomlantirishda davom etdi | продолжали вдохновлять   | Navoi's poems continue to inspire readers today.          |
| 29 | million noun               | millionlab                  | миллионы                 | Millions of people watched the opening ceremony.          |
| 30 | call for verb              | talab qildi, chaqirdi       | призывали к              | Parents are calling for safer roads near the school.      |
| 31 | release noun               | ozod etish, bo'shatish      | освобождение             | The film's release date is next Friday.                   |
| 32 | set free verb              | ozod qilindi                | освобождён               | The bird was set free after its wing healed.              |
| 33 | democratic election               | demokratik saylov           | демократические выборы   | The country held its first democratic election last year. |
| 34 | president noun             | prezident                   | президент                | The president gave a speech on TV.                        |
| 35 | bring people together verb | odamlarni birlashtirmoq     | объединять людей         | Football has the power to bring people together .         |
| 36 | courage noun               | jasorat                     | смелость, мужество       | It takes courage to say you were wrong.                   |
| 37 | forgiveness noun           | kechirim                    | прощение                 | He asked his brother for forgiveness .                    |
| 38 | example noun               | namuna, o'rnak              | пример                   | My father is a good example for me.                       |
| 39 | stand up for phrasal verb  | himoya qilmoq, yonini olmoq | отстаивать, защищать     | You should stand up for your friends.                     |
| 40 | justice noun               | adolat                      | справедливость           | The family went to court to get justice .                 |

millatedu.uz · Read the story again and try to use each word in your own sentence.